Cowboy Action 2nd annual "Little Big Match"

Howdy Folks:

Wow! What a great Memorial Day. Fifty-five hearty old west characters graced the plains to celebrate the weekend with the Black River Regulators. Although we all enjoyed the celebration, it's best we never forget those that made it possible. The first Memorial Day was formally observed on May 30, 1868 in commemoration of the soldiers killed during the Civil War. Today we honor our fallen heroes on the last Monday of May in most states. Additionally, in some southern states, Confederate Memorial Day is observed on a designated date in April.

The wagons started rolling in Friday and kal-bi ribs and kal-bi chicken were provided Friday night by Wil Sackett. I brought some brownies but, where did they go Nelly?

We managed to shoot 12 stages where we broke out of jail, shot up a lynch mob, and even went huntin for Grizz. Our own Sheriff McBride provided the bear. One bear, one bullet. It had to be a deadly heart shot. What a hoot!

Overall match final scores are posted on the scores page.

Saturday afternoon we had a long range side match provided by Chucho El Roto and the results were:

Long range single shot, 200 yards:	10/10 in 1.4119	Short Schatz
	10/10 in 2.02	Rick O'Shea
	10/10 in 2.2707	Bear River Slim
Lever Action Pistol Caliber, 100 yards:	10/10 in 0.1769	Rick O'Shea

Sunday afternoon we had a man-on-man elimination that had around 25 or 30 participants and provided a lot of entertainment for the rest. It was a timed event involving 2 shotgun, 5 rifle and 5 pistol shots. By the way, our dear Lilly Belle beat the infamous husband Irish McCarty in the eliminations.

Our event winner was Bear River Slim.

Congratulations to Rick O'Shea and Bear River Slim for shooting 12 stages over the course of 2 days without a single miss. That's near 300 rounds on the clock.

I would be remiss if I didn't mention that the Capitol City Bowmen provided breakfast and lunch each day for a nominal price, and I heard the biscuits and gravy were terrific.

Thanks go to Popa Cork and Ima Cork for bringing Nicolas out for his Cowboy debut. That little buckaroo in training needs an alias. I would suggest an alias pool or something. We're expecting great things from him someday. Be sure and check out his picture on the photo page.

We all enjoyed our evenings around the campfire after dinner. We had cowboy poetry, a jam session, and now we also have the Bud quartet. The entertainment was worth twice the admission fee! Maybe we'll be even better with another year of practice.

Thanks to everyone I forgot to mention. You know who you are and you make it happen for the rest of us.

I'm not sure about the rest, but I'm looking forward to circling the wagons again next year. What wonderful people to spend the weekend camping with, and we get to shoot too. So, again next year, I suppose we'll just change the date. "The Duke" would be mighty proud of how we spent his birthday.

Work Party Success Report

With the Introductory photo courtesy of Rowland Zoller, It's fortunate to be able to report on a really successful work party. Accomplishments went way beyond the initial intent to replace the front posts on the range shelter. ALL posts on the range shelter were replaced, the residue from Fort Puget and the results of post exchange and range cleanup were turned into firewood in the wood shed, the target shack was cleaned thoroughly and new shelving installed and close up trimming was completed around the range shed and all target frames. The replaced support posts certainly demonstrated the wear and tear of thirty years service and the new, pressure treated posts should serve for at least that long.

The main perpetrators for this activity were:

First and foremost Jim Robertson (Sheepherder, by alias) supplied the main mechanical assistance generator and an assortment of power tools along with the leadership to get the work underway well in advance of the 0800 Start;

Other hearty participants and co-conspirators, in no particular order were: Bo Brown, Doug Simpson, Ralph Birmingham Bill Giberson, John Vladeff, Allen Cuniff, Mike Nesbitt, Rowland Zoller, Dave Dolliver, Tim Sampson, Jay Webster, Greg Meredith, Will Ulry, Steve Andrews, Tom Witt, Glen Sutt and Justin Grant.

At the conclusion of the work a brief discussion was held on the Oregon Trail Days plans. By common consent a pre-planning meeting was set for June 25th at 5 PM at the Tenino City park. After walking over the area and checking out the area, we'll get together for Pizza.
