Cowboy Action “LITTLE BIG MATCH”

Howdy Folks:

Little Big Match 2010 is now history. We had 72 cowpokes and 28 campers under the barely visible stars and the weather was not so perfect as our previous annuals. We did, however, have a wonderful time with 12 stages of fun shooting. Two cowboys even shot clean matches. They were Sy-Less McCormick and Roy Mason.

Last year I asked you to put in a good word to start making some primers available. Well it worked. Our good pard Herb Turner showed up packing a bunch and the cowpokes got to load up on Federal large and small pistol.

After 12 fun main match stages, we had a man-on-man shoot off for bragging rights. It took a while, and several cowpokes went to the wire for the title. Our man on top ended up being Rick O'Shea. Congratulations Rick O'Shea. You're an awesome Cowboy.

Last year we allowed most of the campers and range hands to shoot the side match on Friday afternoon. That worked out so well that we did it again this year and allowed the rest to log in on Saturday after the main match shooting. We also added some new side match events. We had .22 rifle, .22 pistol, belly gun and derringer events added to the mix. In the side matches we had categories and winners as follows:

Lever action pistol caliber	100 yds.	10/10 in 22.81	Rick O'Shea
Lever action rifle caliber	200 yds.	10/10 in 1.33	Rick O'Shea
Single shot (scoped)	200 yds.	10/10 in 2.17	River Walker
Single shot	200 yds.	10/10 in 1.18	Bear River Slim
.22 rifle	4 targets worth 80 pts.		Bear River Slim
.22 pistol	Nevada Sweep for time	3.43 sec.	Slippery Slopes
Belly gun	5 target Nevada sweep	2.89 sec.	Appy Dan
Derringer	Divided Silhouette for points		Deputy Scar/Rick O'Shea-tie

.22 rifle women
Single shot women
Single shot (scoped) women
Pistol caliber
Lady Derringer

Addy Wildrose
Heather Hills
China Bar
Heather Hills
Lady Shannon O'Dwyer

Special recognition goes to Buckshot Ryan, our buckaroo of all of 12 years, who showed up on the long range side match and shot .22 caliber rifle at 100 yards, 10 for 10 in 28.06 seconds. Then he takes the .22 rifle and shoots the 200 yard target 7 for 10 in 51.35 seconds. I think I saw some adult cowpokes walk away with tears in their eyes. Judging by his performance during the main match, we'll be hearing a lot from this guy down the trail.

Circling the wagons on Friday night was a little damp so we moved inside and had a nice cozy meal gathering where everybody shared something.

Saturday night campfire was a little more inviting and everyone enjoyed the jamming and musical talents of those attending. It was a fine end to a great day of shooting and a potluck that had so much good food that everyone had trouble ambling back to their digs.

Thanks to the archery folks for setting up and selling some fine viddles for the shooters for breakfast and lunch on Saturday and Sunday. I hear the biscuits and gravy for breakfast got folks off to a great start.

So, remember folks, it's not just about shooting. It's about camaraderie, a way of life, and enjoying the common values of people who very rapidly become part of the cowboy family. We all had a great time going back and living in the days of the past.

If you're interested in seeing the overall scores from this match, please visit our web site at www.blackriverregulators.com.

If you are interested in shooting Cowboy Action or have any questions, please contact Montana Slim at regulators@zhonka.net.

Interested in bullet casting?

Are you interested in an opportunity to learn from other club members about casting lead bullets? Jim Dotterer and Fred Bartley have offered to share their knowledge of bullet casting. I did spend an evening with Fred recently who was gracious enough to let me cast, size and lube some bullets for my .357 magnum. Thanks Fred, that was fun. If you are interested in trying your hand at casting, give me a call or send an email and we will see what we can come up with.

Wanted: Bullet sizer/lubricator

Does anyone want to sell a bullet sizer/lubricator? I've decided to take the plunge into the mysterious world of bullet casting and will need to size and lube my creations.

Calling all Writers

This is your chance for fame and fortune.

Following last month's Plinker, which I heard was pretty darn good, I am at a loss for articles this month. That is where you come in. This is your opportunity to share your shooting experience. Are you one of the new shooters in the Beginner's Match? Tell us your story. Are you a reloader with a knack for making any rifle shine in the accuracy department? We want to hear from you too. Perhaps you are new to firearms and want to learn more. Ask us your questions. We want to hear from you.

Do I sound desperate for stories? You bet! Send me articles by email at plinkereditor@comcast.net or call me with your idea, I will help you write it.

Let's see if we can get back to a full 8 pages of information for all the members.

Robert Moody

Editor

PS I am soooooo desperate I am recycling stuff I wrote. Please send stories or I will bore (pun intended) everyone with a dissertation on the .270 Winchester verses the 30-06.
