It was Bigger Than Ever

The Shoot Your Eye Out BB Gun Shoot broke all records this year with a whopping 71 shooters. Thirty eight youngsters dragged 33 adults kicking and screaming to the time of their lives. Approximately 3600 BB's were fired down range poking holes for candy and goodies and if you were accurate enough one of 5 Daisy Red Ryders. The ultimate prize of course was the infamous "Leg Lamp". The whole shoot being a take off of the movie Christmas Story. With the shooting over, the movie shown, the next revolution was the Candy Cannon. It was a grand hit sending 30 plus juveniles clamoring for their share of the 6 pounds of candy sent the length of the indoor range. There is nothing like 8 handfuls of candy to go with the hot chocolate and hot dogs prepared by Bob Jamison. Irene Hertwig brought her grand son Spencer Mallory to help Bob. Prizes were last. Wholesale Sports, Ray Crisp, Harvey Gertson, Rowland Zoller, John Mickle, our own club and myself were among the donators. All shooters went home with a prize. The club had a lot of members and RSO's assisting. Bob Greenman, Dennis Boos, and Larry Balestra ran the firing line with nary a problem. The kids were all angels. Our scorers did a flawless job also. This was a task as 71 shooters shot 5 targets each for a total of 355. Brian Mac Donald, Chris Walker and John Mickle took this on with occasional assistance from others. All of the numbers were tallied by John Wickland and Ray Crisp. To keep this all on an even keel Charly made sure these Daisy's were inspected and all unaltered. John Mickle has some great stories about other Shoot Your Eye Out shoots around the country. It seems accurized Daisies were trying to find their way to the firing line. There were many kids out shot parents. Ron Hansen was our Grand Prize winner with Gun and Lamp. Four shooters had his 99 but his x count was 5 to their 4's, 3's and 2 x's. Andrew Michal took the 16 and under Gun with one of those 99-2x's. Our 10 and under was Brandon Veley with a 91-2x. Shantel Turner posted a 95-1x to win the 8 and under. I believe both grand daughters beat Herb Turner to his delight I might add. I know my grand kids whooped me and John Mickle's Sara gave shooting lessons. No one shot in the 6 and under category. The Team shoot was interesting. Chase Ching and Josh Rehder both posted 98's for a 196-10x for the trophy and gun. Why does the kid get the gun and the adult get the trophy in these things? Let me know if you figure it out. Our last Gun was given for the one who traveled the furthest. Unfortunately, I did not get their name. Other winners were as follows. If I did not mention your name my apologies; there were many who just jumped in to help.

January Match Report

One week into the new year the muzzleloading matches resumed. The weather forecast held true with cloudy, dry skies for the event. Following a showery Friday set up with the assistance of Reliable Tony and Kent Dunn, the gray dawn of Saturday saw eight of the "old reliables" come to the Black Powder Range to renew their competition. When the echoes of gunfire died out and the smoke drifted off to join the clouds, luck shoot prizes were gathered in by Tim Sampson for the Turkey Head target and Mike Nesbitt's Poker hand.

"Weener" (vienna sausage) prizes went to reward the diligent efforts for low score on each match while the top places "got the beef" choosing from Summer Sausage, jerky or kielbasa. Trade gun "weener" was Doug Simpson with Will Ulry-1st, Adam Sampson-2nd, and Don Kerr-3rd. For this month's match Will found eliminating the rear sight greatly benefited his shooting. But Will was the weener on the Rifle match while Mike Nesbitt took 1st, Adam Sampson-2nd, and Don Kerr-3rd. Don got maximum attire points for the day with his impressive new suit of elk-skin leathers. Pistol results: Kent Dunn took the vienna can with Adam Sampson-1st, Doug Simpson-2nd and Mike Nesbitt-3rd. Aggregate prizes for those choosing to donate to the blanket, went to; Mike Nesbitt-1st, Adam Sampson-2nd, Don Kerr-3rd, Doug Simpson-4th, BO Brown-5th, Will Ulry-6th and Kent Dunn-7th.

The subsequent Free Trappers meeting was brief in the absence of the Booshway, with a reminder of the Range Cleanup scheduled for Saturday, January 28th. Receipt of the WSMA grants was acknowledged along with the questionable status for the April Scout event which may proceed if an alternate troop develops interest. Range reservations have been made for a Summer ML event the first weekend in July with details to be developed between the Free Trappers and the Evergreen Muzzleloaders

At the conclusion of the muzzleloading matches the range was reorganized for a "first-of-its-kind" event. Under an event-approved exception, the competition continued with early day black powder centerfires. The variety of competitors and firearms was considerable and proceedings on targets at 50 and 100 yards gave a chance for demonstration of shooting skills as well as displaying a considerable variety of smoke-poles. Score ranking and shooting equipment was as follows. Mike Nesbitt was high scorer (181) with his High Wall by C. Sharps Arms in .32-40, Will Ulry-2nd (180x) with a 45-70 Shiloh Sharps, Adam Sampson-3rd (134) using a 45-70 Model 1875 Sharps by C. Sharps Arms. Bob Parr, the sole lever action shooter, used a "76 Winchester "repro" in 45-60 for 4th (126), Irene Hertwig used a Browning '85 High Wall in .45-70 to gain 5th place (95), Kent Dunn took 6th (83) with a Pedersoli Sharps 45-70. In 7th place, Spencer Mallory, a 15 year old Junior shooter used an H&R Handi-rifle in 45-70 (68) and Tim Sampson, 8th place, challenged the course with an original 45-70 Trap Door Springfield Rifle and a .43 Spanish Remington Rolling Block (64).
