June Old Soldier Match

The range is HOT! Literally. It was 75 degrees when we showed up at 8:00 AM, and around 93 when we quit at noon. Tom Schuettke expressed his regrets for having forgotten the firewood for the wood stove. We made do without it.

This was our new format for the Old Soldier Match, which is for vintage military rifles from the World War 2 era or older. We have gone to a 40-shot match; 10 slow fire prone, 10 rapid fire prone, 10 rapid fire sitting, and 10 slow fire standing. The twist is that we are doing the rapid-fire stages with old school bolt action military rifles and using stripper clips for the reloads. Alvin York would be proud of us. We had a time limit of 90 seconds for the rapid-fire stages, but that proved to be not enough time for working the bolt and reloading. So we have extended the time for rapid fire to 10 shots in 2 minutes.

Only 4 hot (and sweaty) shooters showed up. And today proved that by just showing up, you can earn points toward becoming a CCRP Distinguished Rifleman. For the past couple of matches, Gary Baldwin has been challenging himself by shooting left handed. He sees better with his left eye, and now the rest of his body is trying to adapt.

Here are the match results:

TG T	NAME	RIFLE TYPE	Prone Slow Fire	Prone Rapid Fire	Sitting Rapid Fire	Stand- ing Slow Fire	TOTAL	Matc h Plac e	Distin- guished Points
1	Gary Baldwin	Swiss K31	15	38	9	32	94	4	1
2	Gary Thorson	U.S. Model of 1917	94-1X	94-3X	90	82	360-4X	1	N/A
3	Tom Schuettke	U.S. Model of 1917	92-2X	94	79	71	336-2X	2	N/A
4	Ken Horton	Enfield No. 1 MK-3	77-1X	46	62	61	246-1X	3	5

After the main match, Tom Schuettke and Gary Thorson shot the gongs just for fun. Tom won with 9 hits out of 10 shots, Gary had 8 hits.

We decided to skip the .22 rimfire rapid fire silhouette match due to the heat, and we all headed for cooler climates.

Hey Ken: You forgot your clamps. We have them in the box with the score cards and stuff.

Lend a Hand

Our tireless maintenance man Terry Macmanis is out of commission. Terry is having some surgery and will not be doing much for 6 weeks. We need some people to mow lawns and weed eat. If you would give me a call we can put you on the schedule. Terry and I would appreciate it.

Gongs

I just had several members expressed interest in purchasing Gongs. I talked to Mark Finkle and the price has gone up considerable. So I got 8" gongs instead of 10". Now the price is actually cheaper. They are now $40. So give me a call.
